PLEASE DRESS MODESTLY

During the warmer months of the year, it is a good time for a reminder on modest attire. While at the church, please dress modestly. For both men and women:

- Pants and skirts are long enough that the knees are covered when sitting.
- The shoulders are covered.
- No plunging necklines.
- Clothing is not tight. Clothing is to conceal, not reveal.

These are the rules for dressing at St. Peter's Basilica in Rome. Please follow them when at St. Lawrence. Remember that we dress at church not for our own comfort, but to present ourselves to Our Lord.

Finally: Please do not correct anyone on their attire. If you do not approve of someone's attire, please speak to a priest about it and he will approach the person if necessary.

PATIENCE

You have need of patience that, doing the will of God, you may receive the promise. If our Savior Himself has declared, By your patience you will win your souls, should it not be, Philothesa, a great happiness for man to possess his soul? The more perfect our patience, the more absolutely do we possess them. Let us frequently call to mind that as our Lord has saved us by His patient sufferings, so we also ought to work out our salvation by sufferings and afflictions, enduring injuries and contradictions with all possible meekness.

Do not limit your patience to this or that kind of injuries and afflictions, but extend it universally to all those which it shall please God to send you. Some are unwilling to suffer any tribulations but those which are honorable; for example, to be wounded in battle, to be a prisoner of war, to be persecuted for religion, or impoverished by some lawsuit determined in their favor. Now these people do not love the tribulation but love the honor which accompanies it. However, he who is truly patient suffers tribulations indifferently, whether accompanied by ignominy or honor. To be despised, rebuked or accused by wicked men is pleasant to a man of good heart, but to suffer reproof and ill-treatment from the virtuous or from our friends and relations is the test of true patience.

I admire the meekness with which the great St. Charles Borromeo suffered for a long time public accusation that a great preacher of a strictly reformed Order uttered against him in the pulpit, more than all the assaults he received from others. As the sting of a bee is far more painful than that of a fly, so the evils we suffer from good men are much more insupportable than those we suffer from others; and yet it often happens that two good men, each having the best intentions but holding different opinions, foment great persecutions and contradictions against each other.

~St. Francis de Sales - Introduction to a Devout Life
