PLEASE DRESS MODESTLY

As we enter the warmer months of the year, it is a good time for a reminder on modest attire. While at the church, please dress modestly. For both men and women:

- Pants and skirts are long enough that the knees are covered when sitting.
- The shoulders are covered.
- No plunging necklines.
- Clothing is not tight. Clothing is to conceal, not reveal.

These are the rules for dressing at St. Peter's Basilica in Rome. Please follow them when at St. Lawrence. Remember that we dress at church not for our own comfort, but to present ourselves to Our Lord.

Finally: Please do not correct anyone on their attire. If you do not approve of someone's attire, please speak to a priest about it and he will approach the person if necessary.

WE MUST BEGIN BY PURIFYING THE SOUL

The angels upon Jacob's ladder had wings, yet they flew not, but ascended and descended in order from one step to another. The soul that rises from sin to devotion may be compared to the dawning of the day, which at its approach does not expel the darkness instantaneously, but gradually.

The cure, says the medical aphorism, which is made leisurely, is always the most perfect. The diseases of the heart as well as those of the body come posting on horseback, but depart leisurely on foot. Courage and patience then are necessary in this enterprise.

Alas! How much are those souls to be pitied, who, perceiving themselves subject to many imperfections after having for a while exercised themselves in devotion, begin to be dissatisfied, troubled and discouraged, and let their hearts be almost overcome with the temptation of forsaking all, and turning back to their former course of life.

But, on the other hand, are not those souls also in extreme danger, who, by a contrary temptation, believe themselves quite purified from their imperfections the first day of their purgation, who think themselves perfect, though as yet scarcely formed and presume to fly without wings? In what danger are they of relapsing, being so soon out of the physician's hands!
