PROPERS OF THE MASS

Epistle 1 Cor. 9:24-27; 10:1-5

Brethren: Do you not know that those who run in a race, all indeed run, but one receives the prize? So run as to obtain it. And everyone in a contest abstains from all things - and they indeed to receive a perishable crown, but we an imperishable. I, therefore, so run as not without a purpose; I so fight as not beating the air; but I chastise my body and bring it into subjection, lest perhaps after preaching to others I myself should be rejected. For I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, all were baptized in Moses, in the cloud and in the sea. And all ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink for they drank from the spiritual rock which followed them, and the rock was Christ. Yet with most of them God was not well pleased.

Gospel Matt 20:1-16

At that time, Jesus spoke to His disciples this parable: The kingdom of heaven is like a householder who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard. And having agreed with the laborers for a denarius a day, he sent them into his vineyard. And about the third hour, he went out and saw others standing in the market place idle; and he said to them, 'Go you also into the vineyard, and I will give you whatever is just.' So they went. And again he went out about the sixth, and about the ninth hour, and did as before. But about the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing about and he said to them, 'Why do you stand here all day idle?' They said to him, 'Because no man has hired us.' He said to them, 'Go you also into the vineyard.' But when evening had come, the owner of the vineyard said to his steward, 'Call the laborers, and pay them their wages, beginning from the last even to the first.' Now when they of the eleventh hour came, they received each a denarius. And when the first in their term came, they thought that they would receive more; but they also received each his denarius. And on receiving it, they began to murmur against the householder, saying, 'These last have worked a single hour, and you have put them on a level with us, who have borne the burden of the day's heat.' But answering one of them, he said, 'Friend, I do you no injustice; did you not agree with me for a denarius? Take what is yours and go; I choose to give to this last even as to you. Have I not a right to do what I choose? Or are you envious because I am generous?' Even so the last shall be first, and the first last; for many are called, but few are chosen.

If you are sick and contagious, it is not necessary to come to Mass. In such instances, it is an act of charity toward your fellow parishioners, especially those more susceptible to illness, to remain at home.

Meal Train

We are starting a meal train for parishioners who could use help with meals - new mothers, those in a emergency situations, etc. If you are interested in helping by cooking occasionally or know someone who needs help, please e-mail Alyssa Showers at pianoteacher87@gmail.com.

Baby Bottle Campaign

Baby bottles are available in the back of the church for the Morning Star Fundraising campaign. Please return the bottles with your donation by next Sunday, February 16.

February Sunday Afternoon Sports

Fr. Killackey will be leading another Sunday afternoon sports at St. Elizabeth Seton Catholic Church's gym (310 Hertzler Rd, Mechanicsburg, PA 17055) today starting at 12:30pm. We will play indoor soccer and have the gym until 2:30pm. There is a sitting area just outside the gym for those who want to sit and relax. Transportation must be worked out on your own.

Vespers Tonight

We will have Vespers and Exposition with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament tonight from 5:30pm- 6:30pm.

The Cincture

“When vesting for Mass, the priest puts on the cincture, tying it around the waist in some way, as with a Franciscan knot. He binds his loins like Jeremias (Jer 1:17), telling of chastity. The prayer he says when he puts it on is, ‘Gird me, O Lord, with the cincture of purity, and quench in my heart the fire of concupiscence, that the virtue of continence and chastity may abide in me.’ Again and again the priest is reminded of the grave responsibility to live a chaste life... He must be sober, vigilant, watchful, and pray often every day to remain in chastity, a sorely needed virtue for our times.

The priest may use the cincture to recall the cords with which Our Lord was bound when taken captive by the soldiers in the Garden of Olives, in order to drag Him to His trials before Pilate and Herod. The priest may also use the cincture to give thanks to God for the ropes that tied Our Lord’s innocent all-powerful hands to the pillar and also the strands of the whip used in the scourging there.”

- Rev. James W. Jackson, FSSP, Nothing Superfluous

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

Man to Christ's Sacred Wound

O pleasant spot! O place of rest!
 O royal rift! O worthy wound!
 Come harbor me, a weary guest,
 That in the world no ease have found!

I lie lamenting at Thy gate,
 Yet dare I not adventure in:
 I bear with me a troublous mate,
 And cumber'd am with heaps of sin.

Discharge me of this heavy load,
 That easier passage I may find,
 Within this bow'r to make above,
 And in this glorious tomb be shrined.

Here must I live, here must I die
 Here would I utter all my grief;
 Here would I all those pains descry.
 Which here did meet for my relief.

RECESSIONAL HYMN

Hearken, Shepherd of the Sheep

Christ, enthroned in highest heaven,
 Hear us, crying from the deep
 For the faithful ones departed,
 For the souls of all that sleep;
 As Thy kneeling Church entreateth,
 Hearken, Shepherd of the sheep.

King of glory, hear our voices,
 Grant the faithful rest, we pray;
 We have sinned and may not 'bide it,
 If Thou mark our steps astray,
 Yet we plead that saving victim,
 Which for them we bring today.

That which Thou, Thyself, hast offered
 To Thy Father, offer we:
 By Thy sacrifice, O Jesus,
 From sin's burden set them free;
 Hear us, loving friend of sinners,
 Merciful and gracious be.

They are Thine, O take them to Thee;
 Thou their hope, O raise them high;
 In Thy mercy ever trusting,
 Confident we make our cry
 That the souls whom Thou hast purchased
 May unto Thy heart be nigh.
