PROPERS OF THE MASS

Epistle 1 Pet 4:7-11

Beloved: Be prudent and watchful in prayers. But above all things have a constant mutual charity among yourselves: for charity covers a multitude of sins. Be hospitable to one another without murmuring. According to the gift that each has received, minister it to one another as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. If anyone speaks, let it be as with words of God. If anyone ministers, let it be as from the strength that God furnishes; that in all things God may be honored through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Gospel John 15:26-27; 16:1-4

At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: When the Advocate has come, Whom I will send you from the Father, the Spirit of truth Who proceeds from the Father, He will bear witness concerning Me. And you also will bear witness, because from the beginning you are with Me. These things I have spoken to you that you may not be scandalized. They will expel you from the synagogues. Yes, the hour is coming for everyone who kills you to think he is offering worship to God. And these things they will do because they have not known the Father nor Me. But these things I have spoken to you, that when the time for them has come you may remember that I told you.

A second bathroom is being installed in the back of the church. The project should be completed by mid-June.

Live Streamed Mariology Lecture Series

This Friday, May 29 Fr. Killackey will be giving the final lecture in his Mariology series, from 6-6:30pm. Mariology is the study of Mary, the Mother of God, which seems very fitting in May, the month of our Lady. In particular, we will be looking at the theological implications of what it means to say that Mary is the "Mother of God" and "full of grace," and how this should affect our spiritual lives. These lectures will be live streamed via the Mater Dei facebook page. Any questions, please email Fr. Killackey at fr.killackey@materdeipa.com.
